

Child Treated At Hospital After Dog Attack

POSTED: 11:47 p.m. EDT August 18, 2005

Charlotte, NC -- A nine-year-old boy was treated at a local hospital Thursday night after being attacked by a neighbor's dog.

It happened on feldbank Drive in west Charlotte around five p.m.

The dog's owner says the boy was riding his bicycle on their driveway.

The dog broke away from its chain and bit the boy on his lower leg.

The owner says the dog had er attacked anyone before.

Animal control took the boxer/beagle/lab mix.

They'll be observing it for the next ten days.

Copyright 2005 by WSOCTV.com. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten or redistributed.