Dog 'attacks' five-year-old (29/8/07)

Infant is 'scarred for life' after he is 'bitten on face'

EXCLUSIVE by Amanda Ramsden

A BARRHEAD man and woman have appeared in court following claims that their dog attacked a small boy - leaving him scarred for life.

Keith Melvin, 38, and Sharon Melvin, 35, will stand trial next month accused of allowing their dog to enter an address in Barrhead.

It is claimed that at this location the animal bit a five-year-old on the face.

The accused, both of Commore Avenue, are pleading not guilty to the charge which was brought under the Dangerous Dogs Act.
