84-year-old lady Rosa Radonja has subcome to severe injuries brought on by a dog attack. While she was walking along the Sarajevo Airport district, the only lady was bitten by a mountain sheep dog, owned by Tarik K. Police notified that, in spite of a fast Ambulance intervention, the old lady passed away on the spot. As the Dnevni avaz daily writes, the attack occurred in the vicinity of her home, and only several meters away from the owner's house.

-I do not know what actually happened because I was not there when the accident took place. My brother and other witnesses are now being questioned by the police. Also, police have taken away the dog who attacked the old lady, probably to take necessary samples- said Tarik K's brother.
