DENISON, Tex. -- A five-year-old Sherman boy is recovering from a dog attack that happened on Sunday at Waterloo Park in Denison. Lisa church says her son was having a picnic with his babysitter when a brown and black dog tried to take his food and then bit him on the cheek. A | A | A

The child was treated at Texoma Medical Center for a bite to his face.

"Well, I was real nervous that it could've been worse, but I was just lucky that it wasn't and if it would've been worse, I don't know what I would do," Lisa Church, the parent of child attacked, said. □

The child is expected to be fine. Authorities are still looking for the dog involved.
