German Shepherd kills neighbor's dog

A Howell Township father and son were in their backyard Jan. 14 when a neighbor's German Shepherd got loose and attacked their four-year-old Papillon, killing the dog. A Livingston County Sheriff's deputy was called to the home, and was there when the father and son returned with their dog from the veterinarian, after it had died from its wounds. They told the deputy they've had trouble with the neighbor's dogs in the past. The deputy went to the neighbor's house, but didn't enter the property because the homeowner wasn't visible and because of the aggressive nature of dogs at the home. The case is closed and the report was forwarded to Livingston County Animal Control.
