

Dog attacks toddler in Polk County

Winter Haven, Florida - A dog bit and injured a 2-year-old boy in Polk County this morning.

Investigators say they aren't sure why the 4-year-old American Bulldog attacked Joseph Scoggins. The boy was with his father in Winter Haven when the attack happened.

Investigators say the dog belongs to a family friend.

Rescue crews flew the boy to an Orlando hospital for treatment of puncture wound on his face and head.

The owner of the dog has turned it over to Polk Animal Services to be euthanized.
