Seen this dog? It bit deputy

BY EILEEN KELLEY | EKELLEY@ENQUIRER.COM

The Hamilton County Sheriff's office is looking for a dog – a possible collie mix -- who bit a deputy near the Montgomery Road interchange on Interstate 71 this afternoon.

Deputy Tim Maddy was bitten on the right hand after he approached the dog in response to a call about a stray walking along I-71 north.

The dog then ran up the ramp along Montgomery Road in Kenwood.

The dog was about 30 pounds, white with black spots, and well-groomed, police said. Maddy will have to undergo a series of rabies shots if the dog isn't found.

Anyone with information about the dog or its owner should call the sheriff's office at 513-825-1500.
