Dog bites in-line skater

BULLHEAD CITY - Bullhead City Animal Control is seeking information about a dog bite that occurred on at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday near Ramar and Palma roads.

The victim was skating down the street when he passed a couple walking a dog with a leash. The dog, described as a black long-haired, possibly a chow, jumped up and bit the victim on the face.

The couple is described as elderly, Hispanic and having gray and brown hair. The man has a mustache and beard and wearing a white shirt and brown pants. The woman wore a purple jacket and used a cane.

Anyone with knowledge of the incident should call Bullhead City Animal Control at 928-763-6000.
