A Palm Bay women lost part of her ring finger, after she got bit trying to break up a dog fight.

The woman, whose name was not released, called Palm Bay Fire Rescue to a home in the 800 block of Santo Domingo Avenue Tuesday morning, to report the attack.

She told crews that her dogs were fighting in the bathroom and, that when she tried to break it up, one of the animals bit off part of her finger.

The woman was taken to Palm Bay Community Hospital for treatment. The dogs were turned over to Brevard County Animal Control, which will decide the fate of the pets.
