Dog bites woman's face

A 21-year-old woman was bitten in the face by a Jack Russell terrier Friday afternoon.

Livingston County Sheriff Bob Bezotte said police were dispatched at about 1:15 p.m. on a report of a dog bite at home in the 400 block of North Latson Road, north of Golf Club Road, in Oceola Township.

Upon arrival, they discovered the woman had been bitten in the face by her sister's dog, which the family had recently purchased.

Bezotte said the woman was not seriously injured. She was treated by Livingston County EMS personnel. Her condition was not immediately known Friday.

Police seized the dog, which will remain in the custody of Livingston County Animal Control for at least 10 days before it can be returned to the family, Bezotte said.
