Police are investigating after a Lexington baby was killed by the family dog.

The attack happened at around 3:50, Friday afternoon, at a home on Seven Pines Drive.

Police say the family's Jack Russell Terrier mauled seven-week-old Justin Mozer while his mother  was in the bathroom, reportedly bathing another child.

The coroner says the baby was found unresponsive at the home and later died at the hospital.

Right now, the death is being ruled an accident and no charges have been filed.

There's no word on Mozer's funeral arrangements.
Funeral arrangements for Justin have not yet been set.
