Fergus Falls dog could be put down after 2nd bite

Kevin Wallevand, WDAY, Published Tuesday, July 15, 2008

Fergus Falls, Minn. (WDAY TV) - A Fergus Falls man is rallying around, even campaigning, to save the life of his dog.

Patch, a King Charles spaniel, could be put down after recently biting a mail carrier and a police officer.

The city council will make the ultimate decision. The dog's owner says his long time companion does not deserve a death sentence.
