Regina woman bitten on the arm in dog attack

Leader-Post

Published: Tuesday, July 15, 2008

REGINA -- Animal control officers and ambulance crews were called to the scene of a dog attack late Monday after a woman was bitten on an arm.

Humane Society director Gail MacMillan said Tuesday the incident involved three dogs, though the woman was bitten by only one of the animals.

She said the animals are "repeat offender dogs" that have been found out of their compound on several occasions but aren't known to be aggressive.

MacMillan said the animals were returned to their compound after the incident. Further action will be taken only if the victim asks that it be prosecuted, and the woman has to be able to identify the specific animal that bit her.
