A YOUNG boy was rushed to hospital after being bitten on the back of his head by a dog.

The dog, which is believed to be a family pet, attacked the six-year-old boy in High Street, Cheslyn Hay, Walsall, last night around 8.15pm.

Ambulance crews treated the boy, who has not yet been named. He was then taken to Walsall Manor Hospital.

A West Midlands Ambulance Service spokeswoman said: "Crews found a boy who had suffered a bite to the back of his head.

"It is believed the dog that bit the child is a pet of the family."
