RACINE — A 2-year-old girl was taken to the hospital Wednesday after a golden lab mix dog bit her cheek.

The girl was playing in her backyard in the 1100 block of Wolf Street when she startled her neighbor's dog, Spike, and the dog bit her. She ended up with a minor cheek injury, police said.

The girl's mother and the neighbor were nearby and quickly brought her to Wheaton Franciscan-All Saints hospital, 3801 Spring St., police reported.

The dog was registered and was legally on private property, police said.
