Ledyard — A 10-year-old boy was taken to the William W. Backus Hospital after a dog bit him in the face.

The incident was reported at about 11:55 a.m. at a residence at Maple Corners, police said.

The Ledyard Center fire department, Ledyard volunteer emergency squad, American Ambulance paramedic, and Ledyard police animal control officer responded.

Police said the boy was home when he received a superficial bite wound to the face.

The Ledyard Animal control officer is investigating the incident. No further information was available.
