12-year-old Boy Talks About Being Attacked by Dog

Omaha, NE - A boy is recovering after a dog ran him down and went on the attack. It happened near 45th and Crown Pointe on Monday night.

Bandages now cover the bite marks left in 12-year old Aaron Thomas' arm. Thomas and his friends were playing when an American Bulldog got loose and chased after them. "It got on top of my back and I fell down and it bit me. Then I started to run and it was running along side of me," says Aaron Thomas.

Thomas was rushed to the emergency room to get stitched up. The dog was taken in for rabies testing and the dog's owner faces a list of charges including harboring a dangerous animal.
