Update: Dogs bite two people in High Point

Wednesday, May 6, 2009

STAFF REPORTS

HIGH POINT – Two people were bitten in a dog attack Wednesday afternoon in High Point.

Police were called to 523 Flint Ave. shortly after 1 p.m. after reports that two people had been bitten by several dogs.

Police arrived to find that two people had tried to separate two mixed-breed dogs that were “joined together” and were bitten after the dogs became irritated, according to a news release.

Jennifer Murphy Baldwin, 39, suffered several serious bite and puncture wounds.

The other owner, Thomas Howard Roy Jr., 24, received several puncture wounds.

Both victims were taken to High Point Regional Hospital for treatment of their injuries.

The dogs were seized by animal control officers and taken to the Guilford County Animal Shelter.

Police said the incident is being investigated to determine whether charges will be filed.
